This is our wonderful city, full of history, landmarks, and culture that can never be forgotten. Most of us have lived in this city for our whole lives, while others have only just adjusted to this magnificent place. Regardless of how long you have lived here, you know the wonders that it possesses. You have experienced it all.

LIFE IN

Many of us haved lived in New England our whole lives. We have witnessed the beauty that season changes can bring. From the lovely, hot summer nights, to the frigid winter days, everyone has their favorite season. The constant changes can both bother and excite us, but whatever our favorite season may be, we can all agree that there is no place like New England to experience the beauty of the seasons. Nothing can compare to our home.

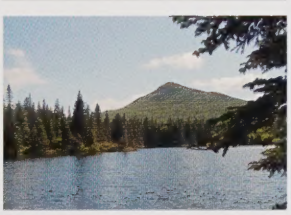

NEW ENGLAND

As the leaves turn from green to oranges and reds,
I know that is the way the world tells us it is time for a change.

As the heat disappears into cold,
we put away our summer toys,
and bring out ones to play with in the cold.

When you take in a deep breath,
there is a smell in the air.
and you can only smell it in fall and winter.

You know when the leaves turn from green to oranges and reds, summer is over and that means fall and winter are coming.
You have been warned by the nature all around.

History of Innitou

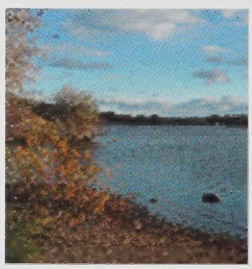

A yearbook is a time capsule to cherish and to keep. It is a statement to future generations of our lives, our views, and our world as we live it. It is the window back to a time of former glories and forgotten joys, of lighter hearts and youthful outlooks.

The name given to our yearbook, Innitiou, has a significance that not many people are aware of. Incorporating both our memories from Woburn High School and the history of Hond Pond, the title Innitou has appeared on the cover of the yearbook since the first yearbook in 1947 and will appear on all those to follow.

This year's Innitou is no different. The title itself is a testament to remebrance. Derived from an early Native American tribed called the Massachusetts, Innitou means, "looking place of the great spirit." Lake Innitou reflects Mount Towanda, now called Horn Pond and Horn Pond Mountain, respectively. the mountain was the resting place for their god Manitou. Since it was considered holy grounds, untouchable for mortal feet, the reflection of his resting place in the lake was their keepsake of their great creator. The name has been passed on to our yearbook as a way to remember our heritage as we leave behind a new special piece of our own.

Tanner Pride

Tanner Pride is apparent all throughout our high school, from school activities to athletics. Everyone does their best to show their true colors.....the one and only black and orange true tanner pride combination.

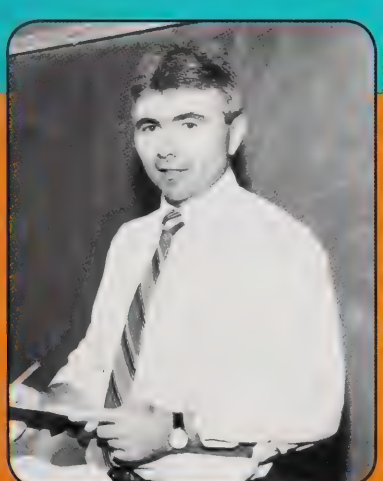

The true meaning of "Tanner Pride" started back in 1973 when Coach Peter Sullivan had 10,000 bumper stickers printed displaying the words "Tanner Pride". According to Coach Sullivan, "They were everywhere, on cars, on teacher's desks, on the press box and locker rooms. Tanner Pride is more than football. It is our community." It is everywhere you look; the band, the school organizations, the teachers, and the City of Woburn. Hopefully, as we grow older, we will always remember our Tanner Pride and treasure it forever.

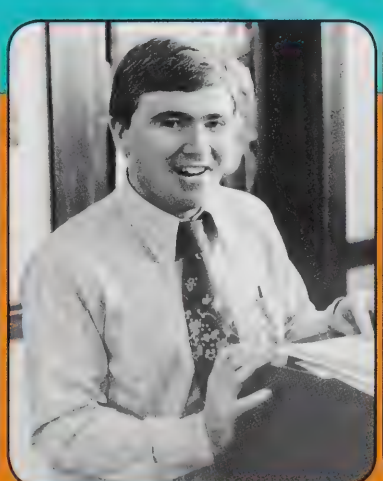

Dedication

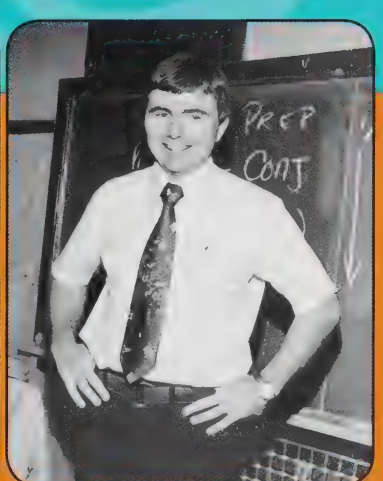

Mr. Edmund McGrath

We, the Class of 2011, dedicate our edition of the Innitou yearbook to Mr. Edmund McGrath. Mr. McGrath has dedicated over thirty five years of service to the Woburn Public School System. Mr. McGrath teaches in the Alternative Education Program, which is a self-contained program in the school that contributes to positive student growth in attitude, attendance, and self-esteem of the students. The students in this program follow a curriculum in place of regular education. Mr. McGrath also advises students in the work-study component, which is an integral part of the program and is required for participation. Mr. McGrath attends many of the school events held throughout the school year. His smile and positive attitude will be missed.

I am

Thinking back four years ago, would you have been able to predict that you would be the person you are today? Whether it is captain of a varsity sports team or president of your favorite club, You may now possess certain qualities that you would never have expected of yourself. Whatever you identify yourself with, currently makes up your personal identity, and essentially it is your "I am". However, the question still remains, would you ever have guessed that you would be that person TODAY?

We stepped into Woburn Memorial High School as quiet, shy, eager freshmen, not fully understanding of ourselves, let alone each other. But with each step and milestone that we've overcome, we discovered something different about our identity, not only as a whole, but as individuals. We have learned who we are throughout these four exciting and formative years, thus bringing forth the fundamental of "I am" in each of us. As a class we grew together, learning and experiencing a variety of new things, which in turn helped each of us to discover ourselves.

High school has been a time to uncover who we really are and to ultimately realize that it takes many types of personalities to make a strong and close community. But before you can form a defined, unique community, you first must be able to understand and define yourself in relation to your environment. Discovering yourself is one of the most important and valuable lessons that you can carry with you always. This is only the beginning of your journey, and with a strong and defined foundation, we can expand our future beyond our own expectations.

HERE WE COME!

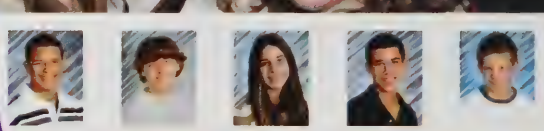

It was time for us to finish up our summer reading, buy our brand new school clothes, and get ready to become high school freshmen. We had no idea what was in store ahead of us; we were all nervous, excited, and stressed out about the transition between middle school and high school. Freshman year was about to begin, and no one knew what to expect.

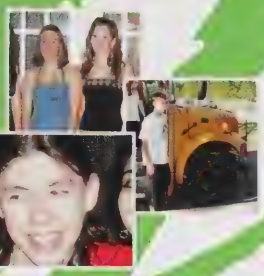

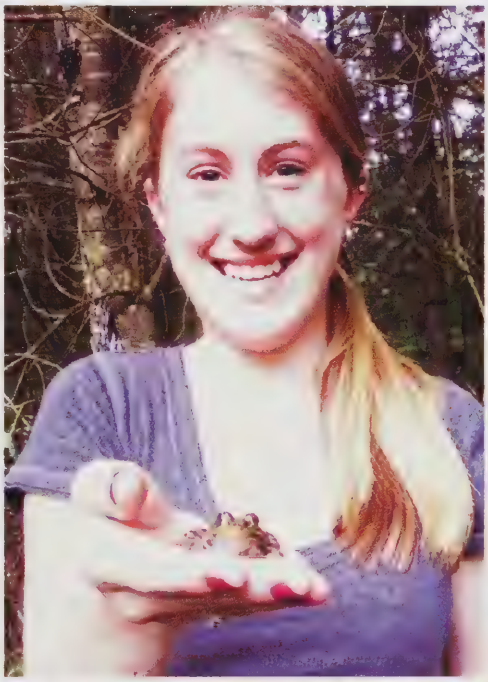

Here's a fun group enjoying their summer vacation before entering their first year of high school.

First Year

Do you remember the uncertainty of freshman year? The hallways seemed huge and we got lost on the way to every class. The seniors seemed so old and the school seemed so new. We all tried to make names for ourselves, whether through sports, clubs, bands, or other activities. For some of us, our first year at Woburn Memorial High School was fun and exciting, others couldn't wait for it to end, but we can all agree on one thing: freshman year was a once in a lifetime experience that we will never forget.

Freshman Year

The memories we have made throughout our freshman year we will never forget. It was our first year in a new place and our time to set the foundation for the next three years to come. Looking back on these days, we have fond memories of the new people we have met and the new friendships we have formed.

Sophomore Year

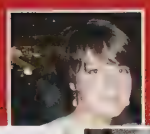

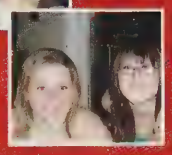

We all had a fun time during our summer before sophomore year. We were finally moving up the chain to gaining our privilage of upperclassmenship, and we knew that it was going to be great. Being sophomores, we were no longer considered "fresh men", and gained a sense of respect for our new ranking. We knew this year was going to be just as good, if not better, than our freshman year.

Sophomore year was full of many new friendships, new classes, and new experiences. By our second year at Woburn Memorial High School, we were able to recognize more faces in the immense halls and all fell into our own groups of friends. We remember dreading the MCAS exams and wishing that summer would come to relieve us from our school work. Little did we know, that summer and the two years after it would happen in a blink of an eye.

Junior Year

During the summer going into our junior year, we ll ignored our summer reading and math packets to enjoy omething more important: the beach! We all loved trips to ne infamous Hampton Beach, swims in friends' pools, and aying out in the sun. Junior Prom

Everyone looks forward to dances, especially junior prom; the first real dance for many of us.

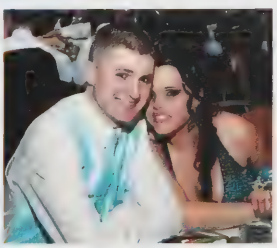

People started planning this night months in advance. By the time the morning of prom came, you were either stressed out or didn't care anymore. Without a doubt there was rain in the forecast for the evening. Everyone could tell when it was prom day, all the girls were dressed in sweatpants and their hair is on the side of their heads. The clock didn't seem to move fast enough, but once you started to get ready the time seemed to fly. Before you knew it, it was time to head off to the Hilton. Hopefully you had brought your umbrella because there was plenty of rain coming down.

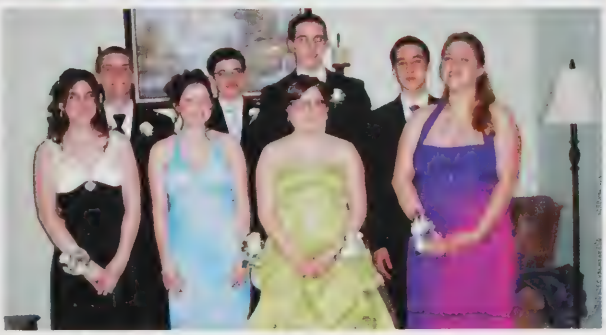

Walking in, you were all excited to see who's wearing what and who went with whom. Walking up the stairs there were flashes going off left and right, and everyone was so eager to get into the hall.

When the music started playing everyone was a little to shy to go and bust a move but after a few songs almost everyone was up and dancing. By the end of the night no one wanted to leave when "Wonderwall "by Oasis started to play. Our day may have started off rocky but out night ended with sweet, blissful memories.

Senior Year

The summer going into senior year was one of our best. With all of our newfound freedoms and responsibilties, we were finally starting to feel like seniors should; full of life, independence, and excitment. That summer, we continued to grow and discover ourselves. We spent countless days and nights with our friends: hanging out, making the most out of our summer, and enjoying the limited time we still had together.

Most of us had looked forward to this year for our enitre high school careers. We had sat through all of our required classes, listened to all of the lectures, and we even had our turns with the awkward underclassmen stage. Senior year was our time to shine, and we had waited for our turn to finally live it. Throughout our high school experience, we learned many valuable lessons that shaped us into the seniors that we had ultimately became. Proud, strong, and excited, we entered our last year of high school, planning to make it worth our while.

Senior Year

At our assembly freshman year, former principal Mr. Robert Norton told us that the next four years at Woburn Memorial High School would fly by in the blink of an eye. Most of us considered his speech cliché, and we felt like senior year would never come. We sat in the unfamiliar auditorium, and listened to teachers that we did not know, anticipating the next four years to be the best times of our lives.

Four years later, we were sitting in the same auditorium and listened to some of the same teachers speak. At this point, we were familiar with almost everyone. We realized, that the years truly did fly by. In no time at all, we had grown into young adults. We reflected back on our years at Woburn Memorial High School, proud of all that we had accomplished and thankful for our experiences, accomplishments, and memories.

TANNER PRIDE

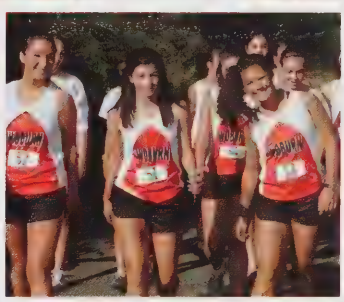

"Tanner Pride" is a phrase that was commonly known among the student body at Woburn Memorial High School. Whether students held posters, cheered on the teams, or even went as far as wearing black and orange face paint, the Tanner Pride was always overwhelming. Our team spirit is what brought us together as a class, as friends, and as teammates, because we took the initiative to become unified forces, A game never went by without enthusiastic cheering and shouting from the stands. Whether it was football, basketball, field hockey, cross country, or any other Woburn sport, our Tanner athletes worked hard and were determined to perform their best and improve their records. Some teams went all the way into playoffs and finals, other teams were in it for the fun, but either way, Tanner Pride was instilled in every team. Athletes and fans alike lived and breathed Tanner Pride, a spirit of togetherness, support, and love for our city that will live on within us forever.

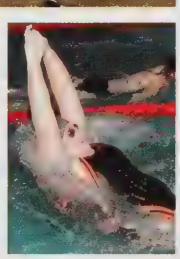

Taking A Swing At It

The Woburn Memorial High School's golf team ruled the hills of the Woburn Country Club golf course. Captains Brian Taylor, Eddie Aprile, and Alex Gillette led their team to a fun and successful season. The five seniors on the team included the three captains, as well as Steve Cain and Jason Longo. They spent the season as role models for the younger team members, improving their game and building their talents. Numerous matches allowed for the team to practice and advance their game.

Roster:

(Capt) A. Gillette, (Capt) B. Taylor, (Capt) E. Aprile, S. Cain, J. Longo, M. Cain, J. DiRienzo, S. Gibbons,C. Flynn, P. Gillette, M. Walsh, J. Aldorisio, R. Mulloy M. Foley, Z. Tanner, R. Delaney

Eddie Aprile, Alex Gillette, Brian Taylor, Steve Cain, and Jason Longo watch as their drives reach the green.

The team's matching golf bags and black golf shirts make them look like a unified and professional team.

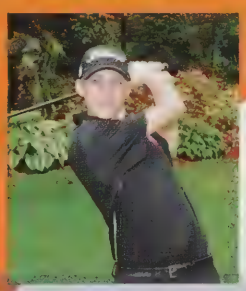

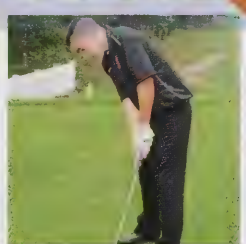

Between matches, the team enjoys water breaks and social time. Their sportsmanship shows through friendly handshakes with the opposing team. Below, shots of the team in action show their talent and their "drive."

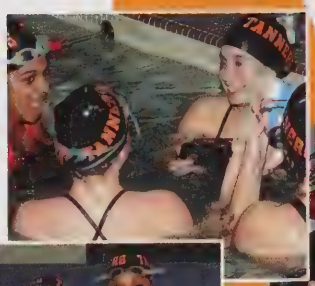

The five seniors are hanging out before practice begins.

The team takes some time out of their practice to pose for a quick picture.

The five seniors on the team display their hardwork and determination during every meet that they participate in each week.

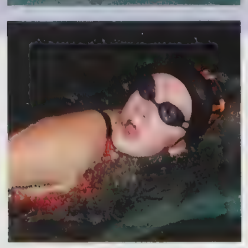

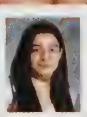

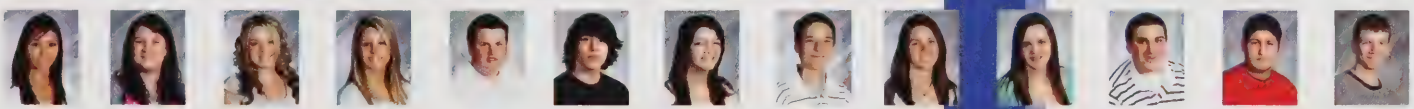

OXYGEN IS OVERRATED

The Girls Swim team was known for being extremely close and tight-knit. From hanging out at pasta parties to having amazing times at practices, the girls always had a blast. Their determination and perseverance shined throughout their strong season and was proved through their outstanding record. The seniors on the team were Meghan Kimmelman, Monique Michel, Diana Burns, Nicole Deane, and Jane Nabbale.This team was one of Woburn High School's finest, displaying great teamwork and school spirit that will never be forgotten.

Rosters:

(Capt.) D. Burns, (Capt.) N. Deane, M. Ahern, C. Filardo, T. Harrigan, A. Hibbard, M. Kimmelman,D. Maitre, R. Mandeville, K. McCue, C. Michel, M.Michel, R. Monks, J. Monks, J. Nabbale

RUNNING BRAVE

If you were to visit Horn Pond during the months of September and October, you were sure to see the Woburn Memorial High School Cross Country team racing through their home course. This team had so much heart and determination, whether they were pushing their limits through the lagoon, getting drenched while running in a hurricane, or trying to survive Sturgis Street, they put 100 percent into every race. Captains Tyler Brady, Jake Rousakis, Angela Ferraguto, Ashley Fuller, and Lauren Graham led their teams through a fun filled season, full of mystery runs, tough workouts, TP-ing scandals, pasta parties, "loving hills," and the traditional jump into Horn Pond after the last home meet.

CHICKS WITH STICKS

Woburn Memorial High School's Field Hockey team had its ups and downs on the turf this year. However, captains Kelley Pruyne and Melissa Webb helped to lead the team through a very memorable season. There were five seniors on the team including the captains, Rachel Carbone, Emily Murphy, and Mikaela Guarino. The team had many fun times, with weekly pasta parties, team bonding activites, and endless practices. The most memorable game of the season was the triumphant win over Lexington at the end of the season.

BEND IT LIKE BECKHAM

The Boys Soccer team was known for their hard work and deteremination. They truly put their heart and soul into the game. These boys mastered the art of becoming a well-connected team both on and off the field. Eddie Cetrone, Brian Dulong, Valerio Silva, Isaac Luckin, Sal LoCoco, Matt Geary, and Nishith Mehta were the seniors who helped this team grow together. With their encouragement, all of these athletes played to the best of their abilities and allowed their hardwork to shine throughout their season.

Rosters:

Paula Arambel furiously races down the field with the soccer ball. Kristen Abreu and Alexi Galvin sprint to catch up with the other team. Erica McLaughlin turns the ball around and kicks it back to her team.

Meaghan Moore (top) schools the opposing team and crosses the ball through her legs to fly down the field and score one for Woburn. Alexi Galvin (middle) jumps to gain possession of the ball. Kelly Duran (right) steals the ball and creates another scoring opportunity.

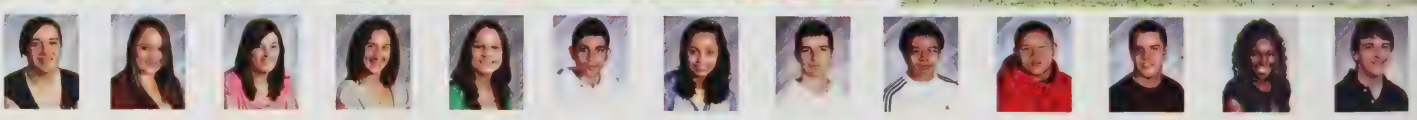

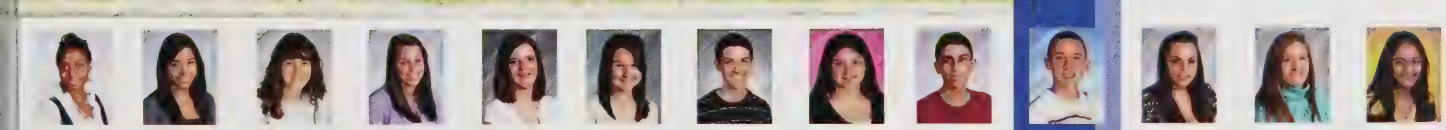

SHE'S THE MAN

The girls soccer team was a powerhouse. Whether they were at practice or on the game field, they knew how the game was played, and they knew how to play it together. They bonded in ways that allowed them to use each other's talent and skills. They were always able to find each other on the field and move the ball toward the opposing goal. This team bond that the soccer girls developed carried with them throughout the season, and will stay with them forever.

THE WATERBOY

When we heard the word football, we automatically thought of Friday night games, a brand new stadium, and of course, Tanner Pride. What we did not see, however, was the skill, determination, and drive that these boys worked for daily. This team became a family and formed a bond that was unbreakable. These boys learned to play, work, practice, win, and lose as brothers. With the great leadership and guidance of their captains, seniors Ryan McCarthy, Brendan Flaherty, Joey Burnham, and Michael Spector, this team gave one hundred percent everytime they stepped onto the field.

Roster:

The Woburn Memorial High School football cheerleaders brought school spirit to an extreme level. Their devotion to black and orange was clearly seen at football games, pep rallies, and competitions. Every year, the school gathered in the gym for pep rallies, and the cheerleaders were always an exciting performacnce. Whether they were wearing their uniforms on football game days, or cheering and flipping on the sidelines, captains Taylor Cassidy and Nicole Martell ensured that the cheerleaders exemplified Woburn Tanner spirit.

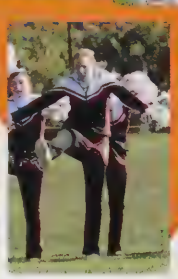

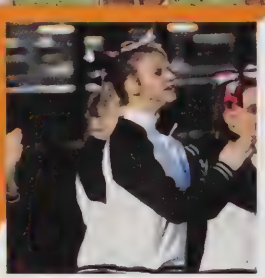

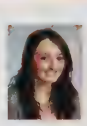

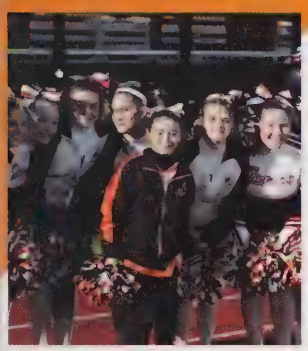

Not only did the football cheerleaders show their school spirit, but all year round Tanner Pride was also shown by the soccer and hockey cheerleaders. These girls braved the cold to ensure that their school pride and their support was always well known. Also a great performance at annual pep rallies, the soccer and hockey cheerleaders put in hours of practice and learned many challenging routines. The spirit and the bonds that these girls have shared will always be remembered by each of them.

Captains Danielle Perkins, Natalie McGuire, and Gabby Parker work closely with their coaches and team mates to make their team successful.

The girls basketball team always brought unsurpassed energy and spirit to the court at each and every game. Their team chemistry allowed for fluid plays and perfect passes, resulting in numerous wins. Every player was a key player, and everyone worked together to make the team stand out. Under direction of captains and coaches, the Woburn Memorial High School Tanners team impressed fans and opposing teams year after year. Unbelievable teamwork and countless hours of practice contributed to amazing records and unforgettable seasons.

Senior Billy Claflin steals the ball from the opposing team to drive toward the net.

Crowded stands, excited fans, and a sea of orange shirts were common sights at the boys' basketball games at Woburn Memorial High School. Between the three point shots and the break aways, the team always gave the game everything they had. An impressive winning record was made possible by the hard work of captains Richard Aponte and Mickel Simpson, along with the dedication of the other team members. In 2010, the team had the unique, once in a lifetime opportunity to play at the TD Garden. This opportunity, along with the bonds that the boys have formed and the innumberable hours of hard work that they have put into their sport, will be remembered forever by each member of the team.

Woburn hockey games at the O'Brien Rink were sure to cause excitment, chaos, and of course, an extreme demonstration of Tanner Pride. The mix of frosty air, clicking hockey pucks, and team spirit led to a successful season for the boy's team. With the leadership of captains Brian Dulong and Alex Holland, the Woburn Memorial High School hockey team became one of the most revered squads in the Middlesex League. Whether it was their speed, their strength, or their ability of fluid teamwork, these seniors had a special quality that made their team a favorite spectacle among Woburn students.

Roster:

The girls' hockey team continuously impressed their fans. Their spotless record was a result of hours upon hours of hard work and time on the ice. Demanding practices and brutal workout didn't keep these girls from doing their best; the hockey team was one of the best in the league. It became second-nature for these girls to work together, and their teamwork payed off over and over again. These girls had some of the strongest talent in all of the high school, and with the leadership of the captains and the seniors, they never gave the game less than their best efforts.

THE CUTTING EDGE

The young wrestling star, Jose Cruz catches Burlington's wrestler in a head lock. Within seconds, the young star pinned his opponent and won his match.

The wrestlers were a rare type of athletes; their intense outer strength stemmed from a strong work ethic and inner strength. Their motivation allowed them to exhibit incredibly fierce stamina during even the most difficult matches. Encouragement from teammates eased the stress of the fights and helped the competitors to show their full potential. The young men on this team were experts on swiftly taking down their opponents and pinning them to the ground. The wrestling team spent hours of training and fortifying their bodies, which helped them advance both their inner and outer strength.

Rosters:

A.Bordenca, J.Delano, J.O'Brien, D.McNulty, A.Colon, G.Forbes, S.Tibbo, R.Singh, K.Cox, S.Trelett, M.Paez, C.West, B.Martin, V.Busa, M.Bentley, J. Souza, L.Castro, D.Stuart, J.Cruz, J. Steiner, J.Torres

READY TO RUMBLE

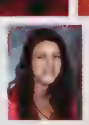

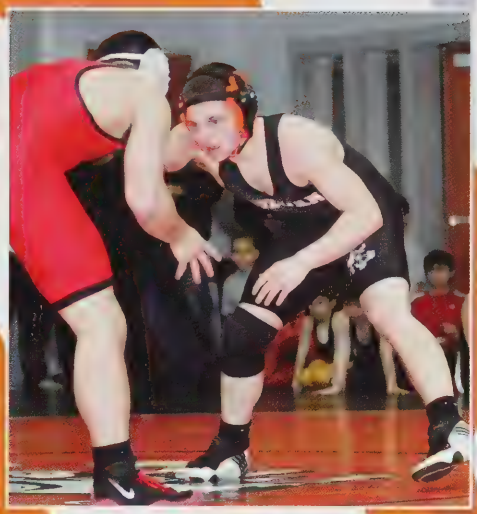

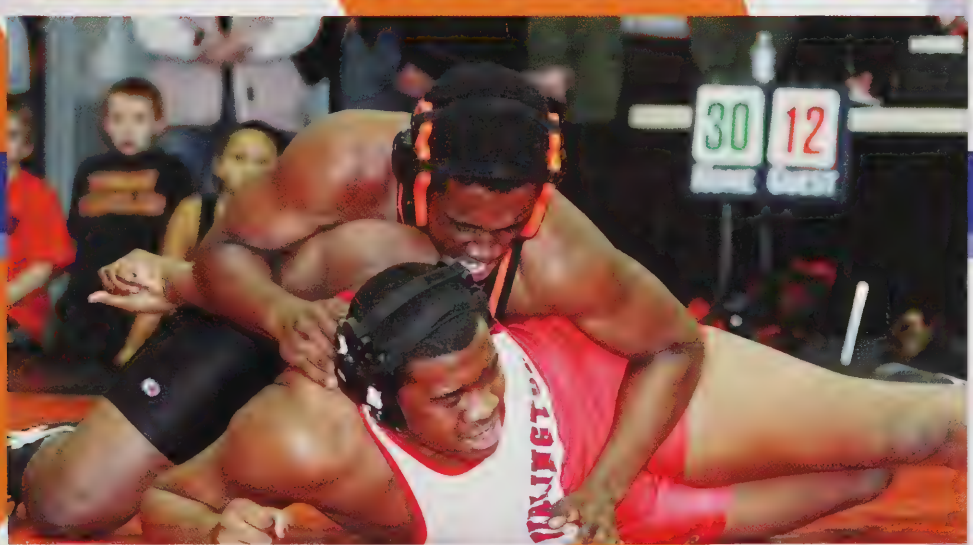

On the left, Woburn is caught in a bit of a struggle, but on the right it is just the start of a new match. The wrestler on the right redeems Woburn's previous loss (right picture) in defeating Burlington with the swim move and tossing the Burlington opponent to the ground. In the background, you see Woburn has won the match 30-18.

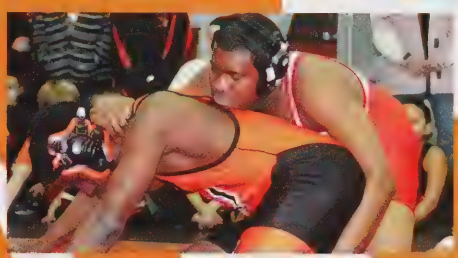

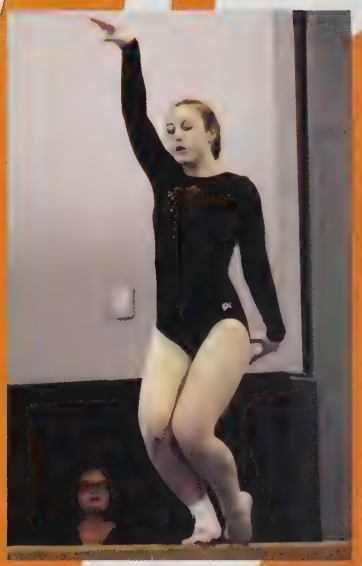

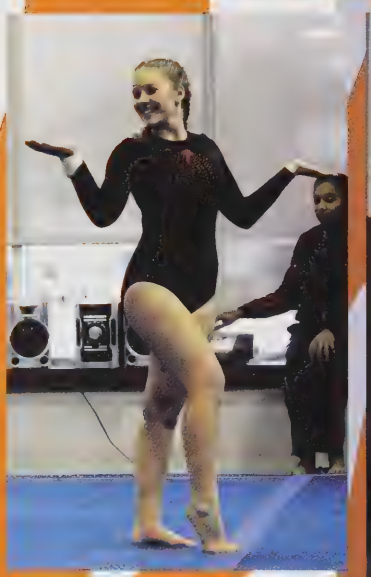

Flips, turns, bars, and music seem to be the lives of these hard working young women. They worked so hard to achieve a strong record and continued to imporve throughout the season. They enjoyed doing what they loved and they showed this during every single meet. Right and below, the girls are having a blast performing their routines and working hard while having fun.

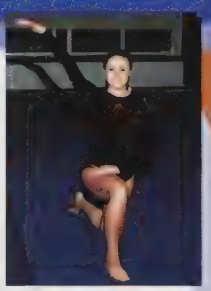

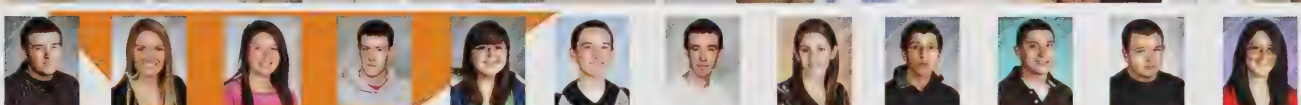

Captain Julie Girolamo shows off her skills by doing tricks and flips on the bar.

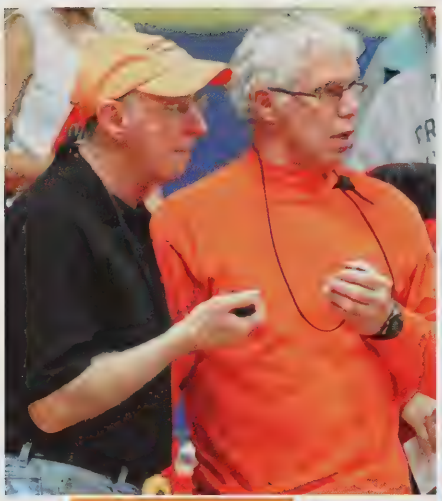

The girls' Gymnastic Team at Woburn High School was outstanding at making their hard work and determination look effortless. Through all of the pasta parties, practices, and meets, this team had come together to create an inseparable bond that can never be forgotten. Most people do not know how much blood, sweat, and tears go into making a strong and fortified gymnastic team. The three seniors of this unified team were Courtney O'Connell, Monique Michel, and Julie Girolamo; all three of them lead this team to a great season and showed wonderful examples of determination.

Roster:
C. O'Connell (Capt.), J. Girolamo (Capt.), M. Michel, B. McNeil, E. O'Neil, J. Kuhn, S. Tarpy, A. Hunt, C. Quinton, C. Lynch, L. DeMarco, N. Melanson, K. Matthews, N. Huynh

Stick It

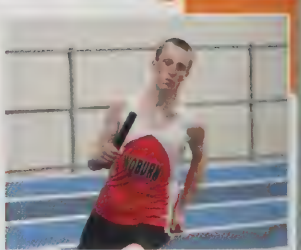

The talent that the indoor track runners possessed was unparalelled by other athletes. The self discipline and raw athletic ability that each member of the team had contributed to the team's success. Though running is an individualized sport, team work was absolutly necessary. Whether the team was practicing baton hand-offs or pushing their team mates to the limit in races, contributions from every member made a difference. It was the responsibility as veteran seniors to be role models for the team, and every member put their all into their events

STUDENT LIFE

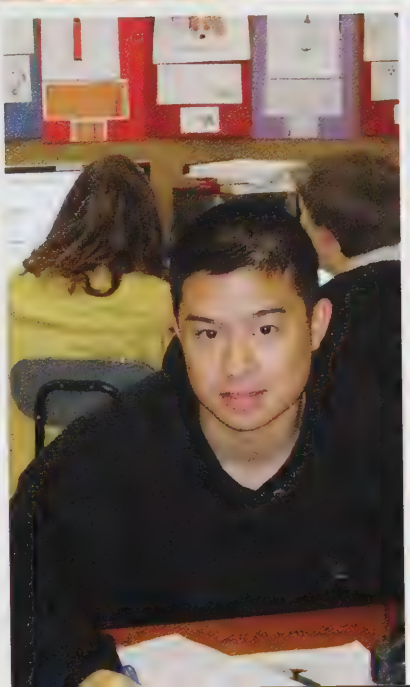

In life, the finished product is what reflects the effort put forth. The students from Woburn Memorial High School become strong, accomplished, and proud individuals. As students in high school, we were responsible for the level of effort that we put into every part of our daily lives. We were not only driven to succeed in school, but also in all of our other important activities. High school was not always easy, but we managed to have fun all along the way. In class, out of class, on the weekends, and basically anytime we could, we made the most of our high school experience. Of course, there was never a dull moment during each school day; there was always something exciting and interesting happening. Whether you were setting your hand on fire in Mrs. Joseph's chemistry class, or writing down an outrageously worthy quote into Mr. Gangi's infamous quote book, you were always having fun while learning. Throughout our four years at Woburn Memorial High School, we had some of the best times of our lives, fun times that we will never forget. We have learned so much from our teachers and classes, and would never have been able to survive high school without the funny, inevitable incidents that occurred daily. We have learned so much from each other, while having fun and enjoying our high school years. It has been a memorable experience, and everyone around us has helped to shape us into who we have become.

Artists are inspirational, creative, and unique. There is a special way of looking at the world that can only be achieved through the eyes of a true artist. In high school, these young artists blossomed. They found their strong points and pushed the limits of creativity. They expressed themselves through their art; whether it was painting, sketching, sculpting, photography, or digital art.

Music:

Band, Chorus, Chior, and Plays

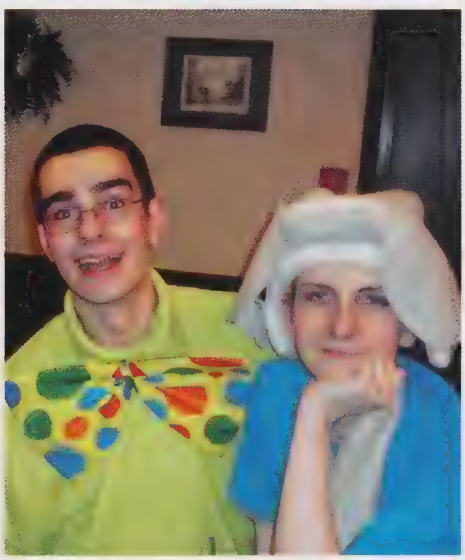

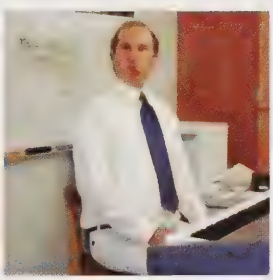

People express themselves in many different ways. Music allowed many students to show off their unique and exciting talents. Our class was full of musically inclined students; we had many talented singers and many students with the impressive ability to play instruments. Students looked forward to hearing the band's energy at football games and pep rallies. Crowds of high school students, parents, and teachers gathered to watch our singers and actors participate in the school plays. Many students enjoyed music classes and singing classes offered during school. Our talented musicians were able to grow and improve through the great music programs at Woburn Memorial High School.

Work study was a great way to prepare students for the working world after high school, this class allowed students the opportunity to keep up with both schoolwork and a job. Stephanie Santiago-Ortiz, Ashley Ruderman, and David Milone are at their lockers preparing to go off to work.

Family Consumer Science was helpful in preparing students for the future. Billy Biel and Franciso Torres seem eager to start cooking in these photos, while Caleigh Morris and Tyler Patterson are puzzled as they listen to the instructions.

Design, Engineering, and Prototyping, also known as wood shop, was the class for students who were crafty and skillful. Craig Langes, Jodeci Souza, and Jason Longo are all showing off their newfound talents.

Electives Rock!

When thinking about choosing classes year after year, most of us dreaded sitting through all of the core subjects. Electives were an important part of our curriculum, and a good way to spice up a boring school day. Every year, we were allowed to take more electives, such as gym, family consumer science, wood shop, and many more. These classes were a great way to meet people with similar interests and to develop new knowledge in almost any area. Many students would have loved to spend all of high school taking fun elective courses!

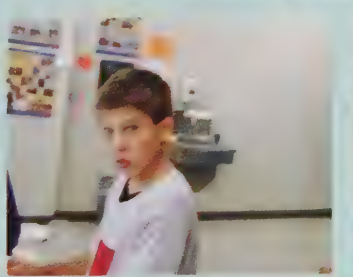

Physical education was fun for some and a nightmare for others. For those that had interests in sports and exercise, the games and activities were competitive and enjoyable. Eddie Aprile (top) and Eddie Cetrone (bottom right) show their excitement for tennis. Kelley Pruyne (top left), Danny Jean (top right), and Steve Cain (bottom left) express their distress for the game.

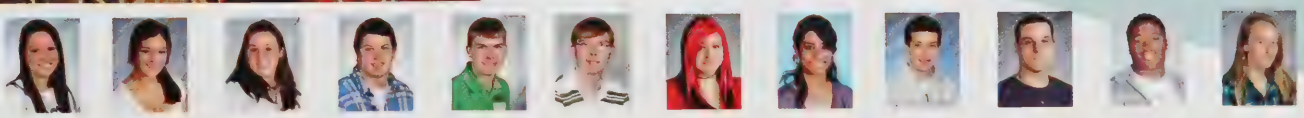

Engineering the Future was a class in which students worked with the scientific method and design process. In these pictures, Billy Hammond, Steve Davanage, Christian Connor, Zach Caplis, and Alaina Schiano are working and discussing the completion of their projects.

It was senior year, which meant that it was finally our homecoming. We remembered back four years before, when we, as freshmen, had bought out most of the homecoming tickets and invaded the dance of 2007. But for our senior year, we got first purchase priority on tickets, got to run for king and queen, and had the whole dance dedicated to us; this was at last our time.

We were excited for weeks as that Friday night slowly rolled around; new dance "rules" and a silly video weren't going to keep us from the dance floor. We remember the typically slow start to the dance, but soon enough everyone was having a great time. Girls admired each other's dresses, hair, and nails, and guys talked to each other over the blaring music. Couples danced, smiled, and enjoyed themselves for hours.

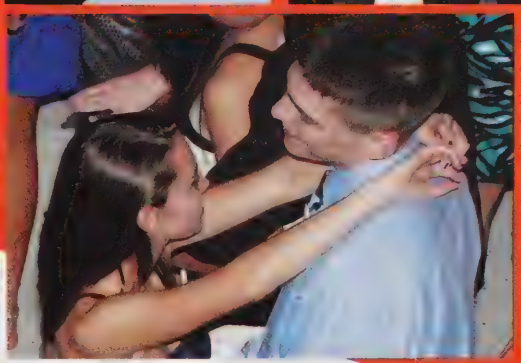

We remember the surreal feeling we all had when our class song, Wonderwall, began to play at the very end of the dance. For those few minutes, we all united as a senior class, realizing this would be one of the last few times that we would have the opportunity. After three years as underclassmen, watching the seniors sway and sing to their class songs, it was finally our turn. Our last Homecoming flew by in three hours that felt like three minutes, just one more completed chapter that we went through together.

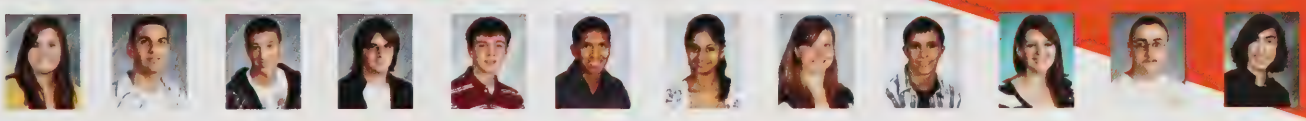

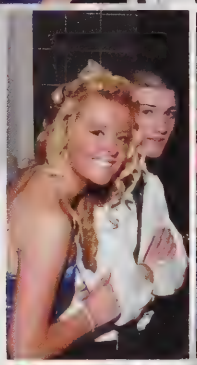

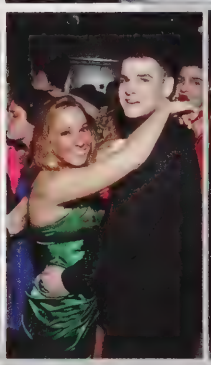

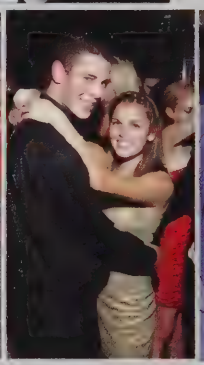

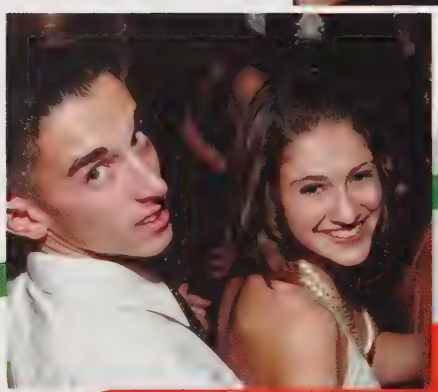

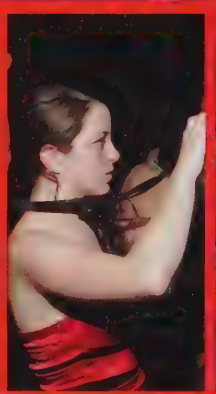

Holiday

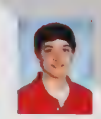

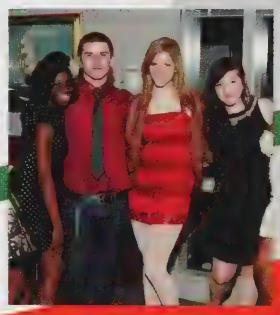

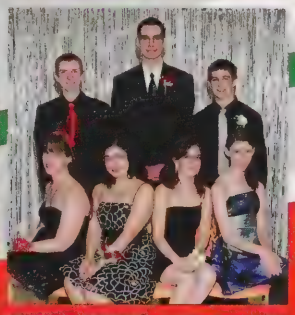

Dance

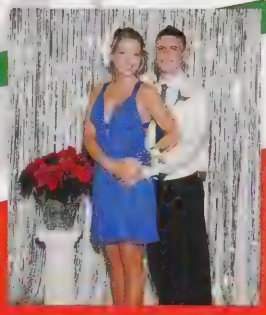

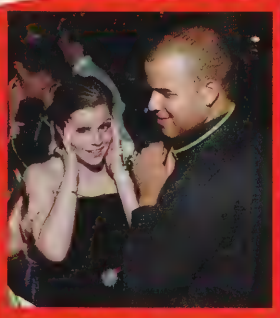

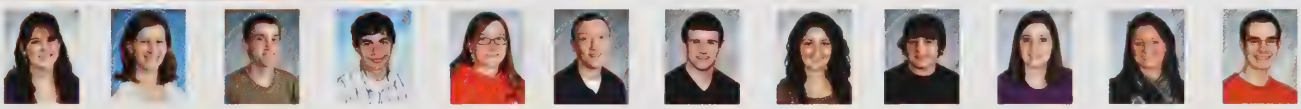

Winter Wonderland...

As seniors, it was finally our turn to enjoy the Holiday Dance. Weeks were spent finding dates and planning which group of friends to attend the dance with. Girls spent their time looking for dresses in the perfect shades of holiday red and Christmas tree green.

The dance was fun for everyone; it was a much-awaited highlight of our senior year. After waiting in line to get keepsake pictures taken, dates and friends hit the dance floor. Everyone in attendance looked wonderful had had a blast, we were all ready to ring in the new year together.

This drooling baby has grown up to be a varsity lacrosse player and somewhat of a class clown.

Who's this giggling baby? Here's a hint, she is infamous for making this face nowadays.

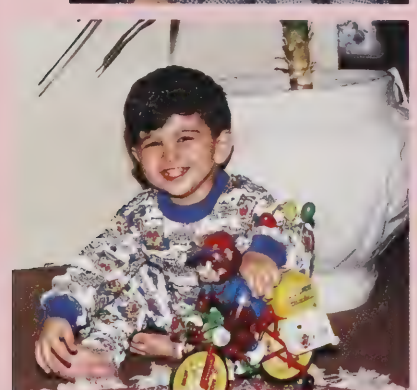

This toddler grew up to be a co-editor-in-cheif of Woburn High's acclaimed Bull's Eye newspaper. Below, this girl is just as fashionable now as she was as a baby.

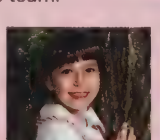

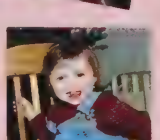

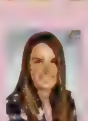

This little one came to Woburn from Texas. He grew up to be captain of the Woburn Memorial High School boy's tennis team.

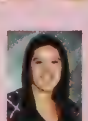

Why so serious? This baby doesn't look like a very happy clown. He has grown up to be a vital member of the boys hockey team as their starting goalie.

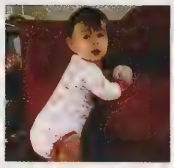

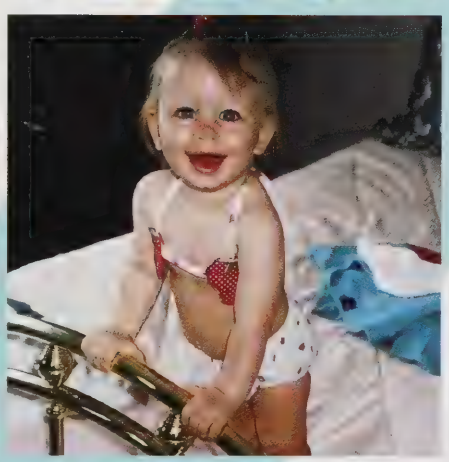

Who?

Left, this mischevious-looking kid has grown up to be a big time Cross Country star and team captain. Center, this smiley baby grew up to be an artistic student who is a Cross Country captain and lacrosse player. Right, these cousins have been best friends for their whole lives. Club Activites

Woburn High School offered over 40 different clubs and activities to keep students busy. A large percentage of the student population was involved in various clubs and activities; they enjoyed giving back to the community and being with others who shared their interests. Many club activities involved working with the community; such as the blood drive, the halloween parade, Thanksgiving lunch with senior citizens, the powderpuff game, athletic Rotary luncheon, Winterfest, Mix It Up day, and many more.

The blood drive was held annually during the month of October. It was run by the Key Club and gave the students an opportunity to participate in a great cause.

"Mix It Up" was one of the popular activities. It allowed us to meet new people and discover what we had in common with others outside of our own groups of friends.

The annual "Giving Camp" was held during December, and gave students a chance to spend time with individuals with disabilities.

The Lip Sync was a chance for people to be goofy or show off their dancing and impersonation talents. Year after year, the Lip Sync always drew an enthusiastic crowd.

High school has been time spent
Growing, learning, and understanding;
Time spent finding out who you are
And where you fit in the world.
It's been time spent
Growing close to the people
You met along the way,
And time spent making memories.

Now that it's time to graduate,
Hold on to your memories
And be proud of what you've accomplished.
As you graduate from high school,
Remember that your diploma is a symbol
Of the knowledge you've gained,
The goals you have set and achieved,
The friendships you have made,
And the person you've become.

But never stop striving and growing,
Because there are other challenges that await you.
Though you'll be saying good-bye
To people and places that mean a lot to you,
There are others waiting for you to discover.
As you graduate,
I wish for you life's blessings:
People who love you,
Dreams that come true,
Strength of mind and body,
Deep faith,
A few good, close friends,
And learning that never ends.

around us. We will never forget the lessons that we have learned, as they will always have a lasting impression in our minds.

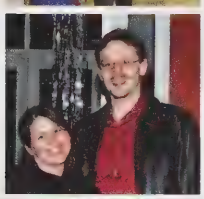

FACULTY

At Woburn High School, there was always a staff member ready to answer any of our questions or offer us advice. They worked together each day with our fellow students and went out of their way to help us succeed. They truly cared about us, and they were more than willing to be of assistance whenever we needed them. Staff members are more than employees. They are teachers, mentors, and examples of inspiration to all of us. Our teachers, especially, have played an important and prestigious role in shaping us into the people that we are today. They have taught us throughout the years with all the qualities they possess. At times it may have been difficult but they have led with determination and compassion. We have grown and matured from what we have seen as the different aspects during our high school careers, while the positive ones have helped us to form our own ideas and grow as individuals. We will never forget their kindness and will be forever thankful for their guidance and support throughout our four years.

Thank You

...and you, and you, and you...

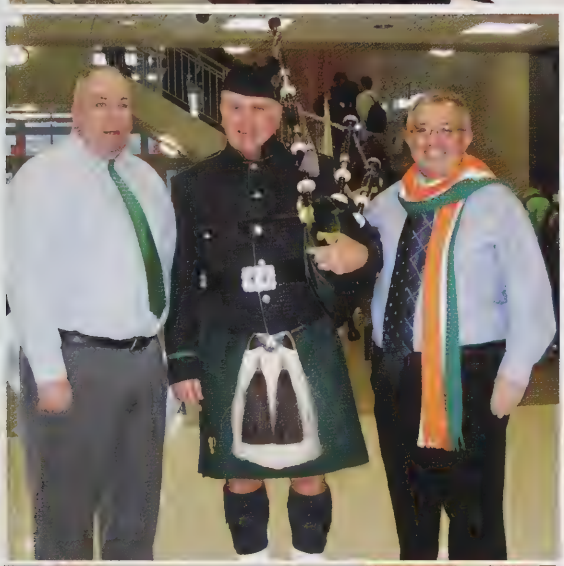

With a special gift for learning,
and with a heart that deeply cares,
you add a lot of love,
to everything you share.
And even though you mean a lot,
you'll never know how much.
For you helped to change the world,
through every life you touched.
You sparked the creativity,
in the students whom you taught,
and helped them strive for goals,
that could not be bought.
You are such a special teacher,
that no words can truly tell,
However much you're valued for the work you do so well.

Our Yearbook

Sue Happel is our go-to Herff Jones person when it comes to anything yearbook. She eats, sleeps, and breathes yearbook, and it pays off to make our book the best.

Mrs. Thifault and Mrs. Getherall are the advisors who make our wonderful yearbook possible through many months of hard work.

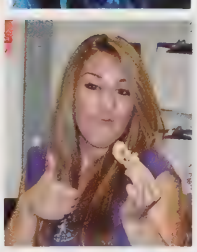

I am:
A sports fanatic.
-Kelley Pruyne

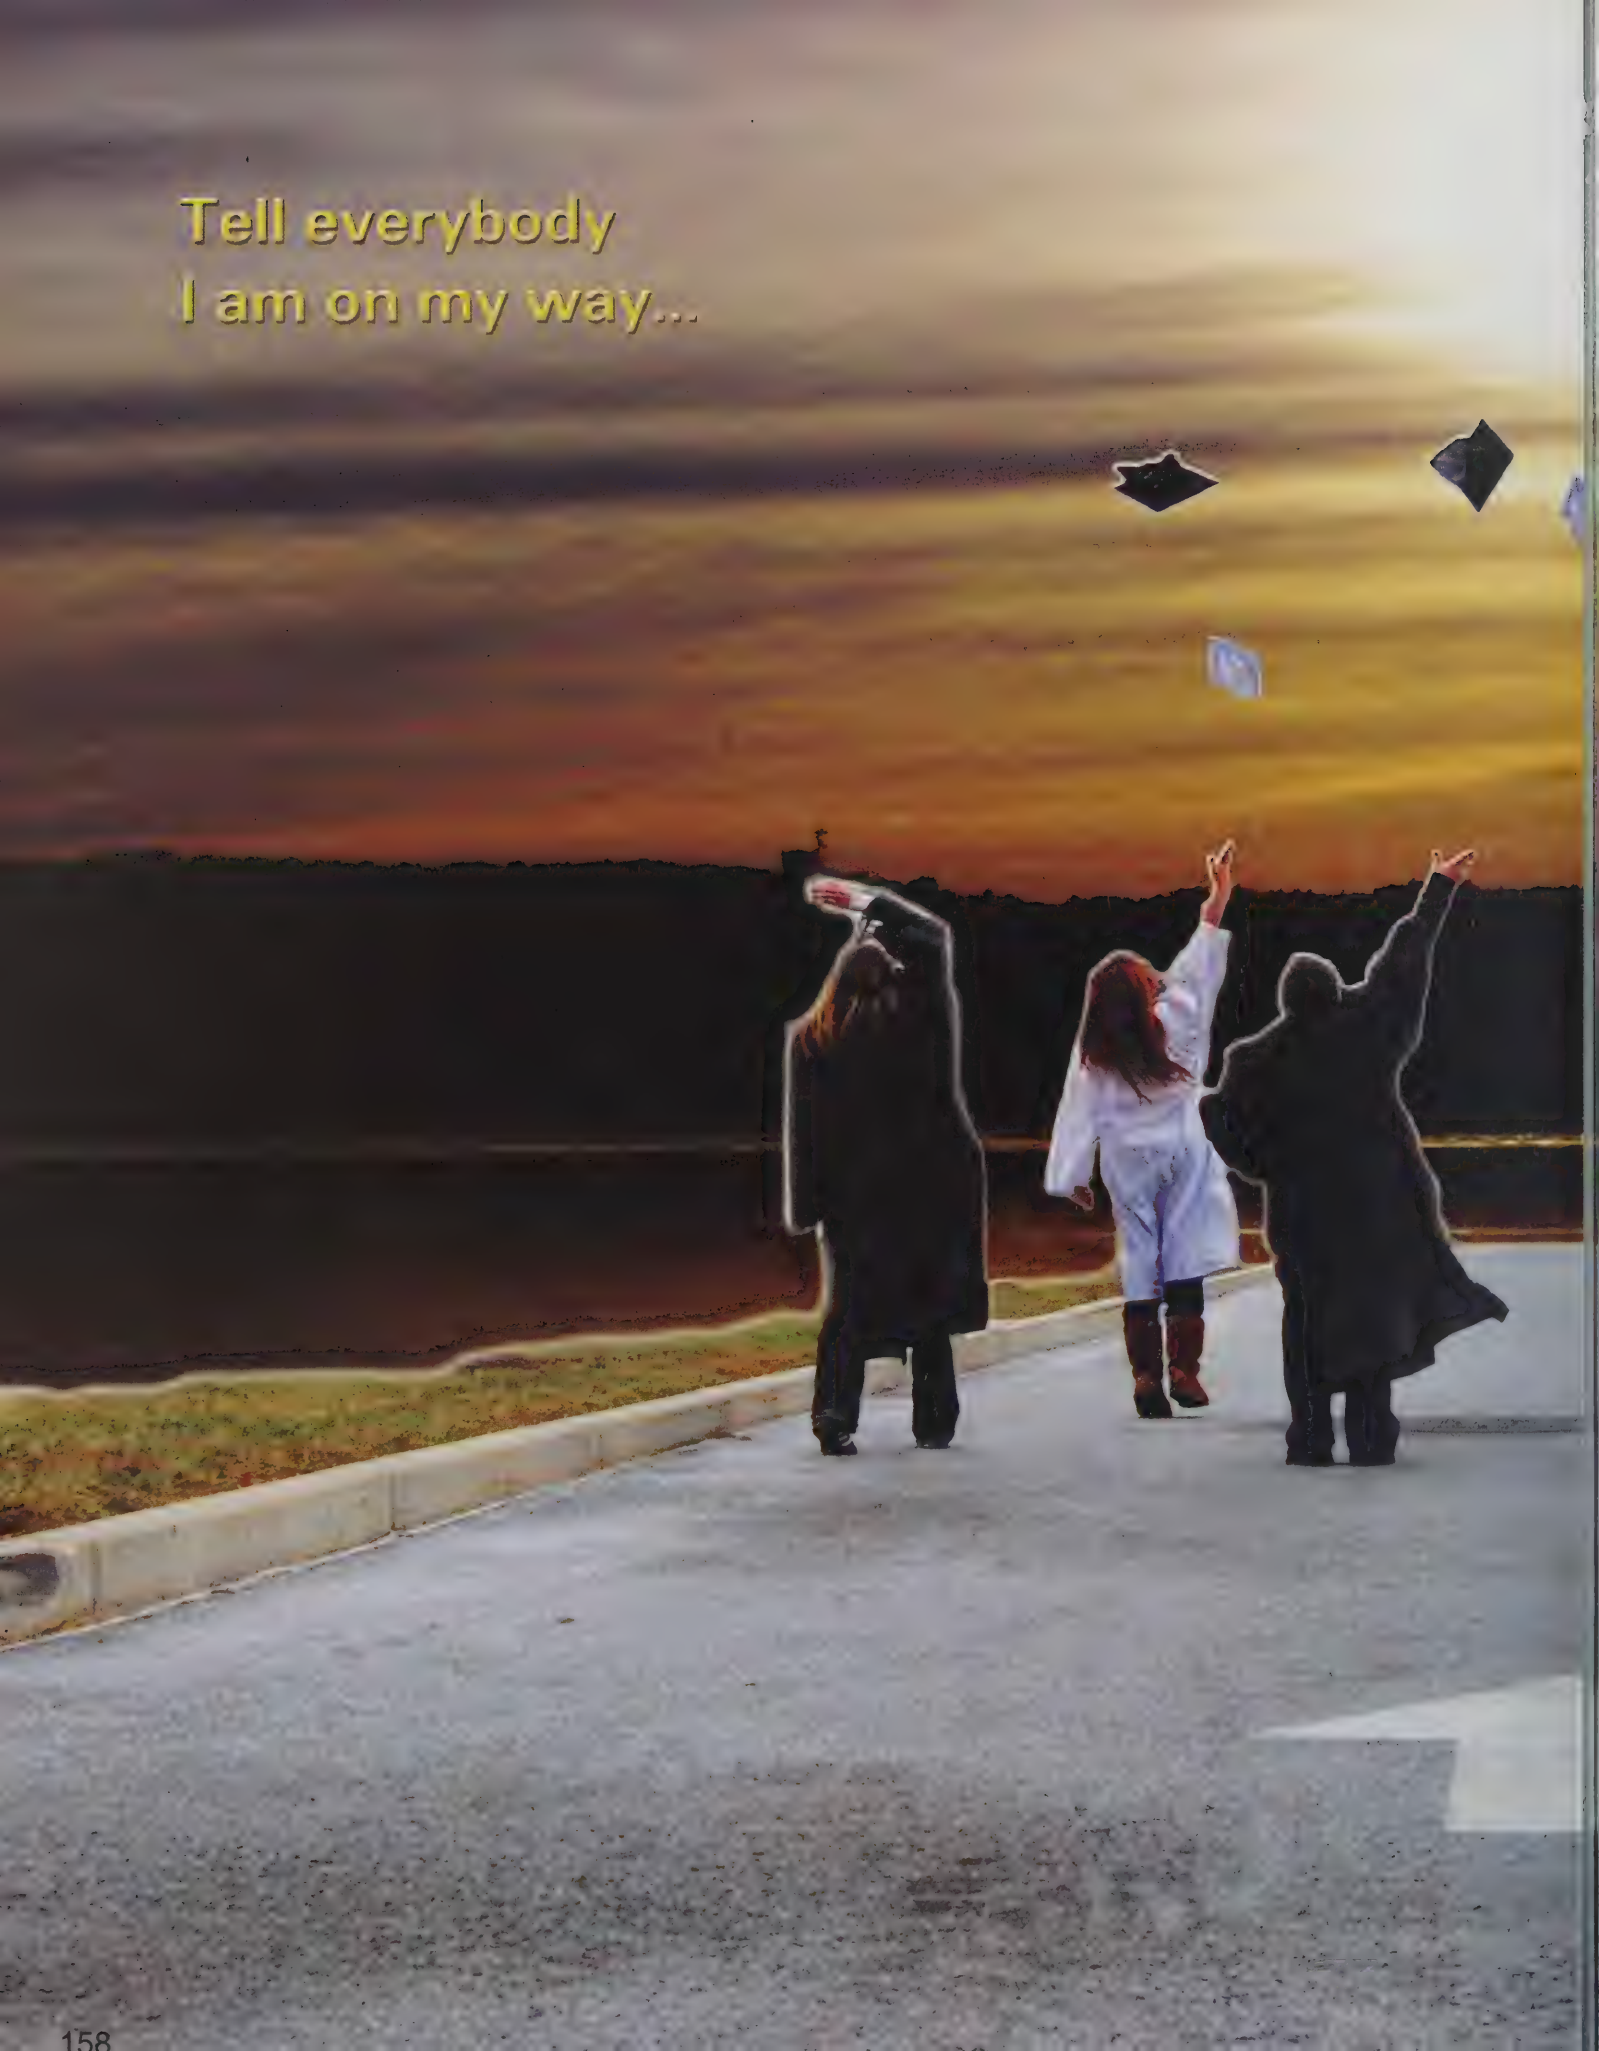

Believe it or not, we started making our yearbook during the spring and early summer of junior year. The theme and cover design were chosen and pictures were collected before senior year started. Every day, we worked on pages, layouts, and ideas to make our book unique and special. Between sorting photos, designing layouts, and bothering our classmates for pictures and quotes, teamwork is what held our devoted group together. Various meetings with Sue Happel, the "Yearbook Lady," led us on the path to creating what we believe is a beautiful and meaningful book. We have worked hard to preserve four years of memories in one book, each page holds a different story, and every story is special. We believe that we have captured a little bit of everybody in our Class of 2011 yearbook, who we are, to be remembered forever.

Tell everybody
I am on my way...

... and I'm loving every step I take.
With the sun beating down,
Yes, I'm on my way,
And I can't keep this smile off my face.

OIL SPILL IN THE GULF

BRITISH PETROLEUM

CEO Tony Hayward testified before the House Energy and Commerce Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee. Hayward resigned from his post on July 27, 2010.

200 MILLION GALLONS

The amount of crude oil that spilled into the Gulf of Mexico made this the world's largest accidental oil spill in history. After five months, the well was declared "effectively dead."

THE PEOPLE REACT

BP station boycotts and anti-BP social media groups as well as traditional protests, like this one in Vienna, Austria, allowed people to make their feelings about the oil spill known.

BOUND TO HAPPEN

The follow-up report by the National Commission on the BP Deepwater Horizon Oil Spill and Offshore Drilling said 'systemic' problems caused the blowout/oil spill and only 'significant reform' could prevent future spills.

/THE MAKING OF

TIGERS EDGE DUCKS The top-ranked Auburn Tigers defeated the No. 2 Oregon Ducks 22-19 in the BCS Championship game in Glendale, AZ as the 2010-11 season wrapped up. Auburn quarterback and Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton threw for 256 yards and rushed for another 64, accounting for two touchdowns. Freshman running back Michael Dyer was named MVP. Senior Wes Byrum kicked his sixth career game-winning field goal on the last play of the game to save the Tigers' perfect season. This was the fifth consecutive national championship for the SEC.

FAST AND FURIOUS X 5 Jimmie Johnson came in second to Carl Edwards at the Ford 400 at Homestead-Miami, but that was enough to vault him over Denny Hamlin in the points race to win his fifth consecutive NASCAR Sprint Cup Championship. Hamlin's car was damaged early in the race and never challenged for the lead. Only Richard Petty and Dale Earnhardt, with seven championships each, had more titles than Johnson. Between 2002 (when he joined Hendrick Motorsports) and 2010, Johnson recorded 53 wins, 203 top-ten finishes and 25 pole positions.

DUKE DOES IT AGAIN The Duke Blue Devils captured the NCAA men's basketball championship for a fourth time with a 61-59 win over Butler in Indianapolis, IN. Duke's Final Four title, their first since 2001, snapped Butler's 25-game win streak. FREE FALLIN' Canadian freestyle skier Kaya Turski, in her first run since ACL surgery in April, claimed gold in the 2011 Winter X Slopestyle, repeating her win from last year. Turski also took silver in the 2011 Freestyle World Championships. THREE OUT OF FOUR Tennis star Rafael Nadal won the French Open, Wimbledon and the U.S. Open, bringing his total of Grand Slam victories to nine. Roger Federer won the Australian Open.

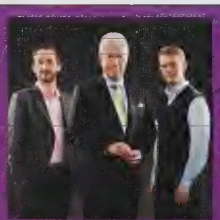

THE CREAM RISES Paula Creamer held off competitors Suzann Pettersen and Na Yeon Choi to secure victory at the 65th Women's U.S. Open. This was her first major tournament win.

RATINGS SOAR An estimated 715 million viewers – approximately one in 10 people alive at the time – watched the final match of the 2010 World Cup.

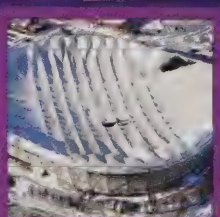

FACEOFF Watson, an IBM supercomputer, battled two past Jeopardy champions, winning handily. The $77,147 in prize money was donated to charity.

A NYC LEGEND George Steinbrenner, owner of the New York Yankees for more than 37 years, died at age 80. Steinbrenner's Yankees won seven World Series and 11 pennants.

WAVES OF GRIEF Andy Irons, three-time world surfing champion, died at age 32. He had 20 World Tour victories and four Triple Crown of Surfing titles.

SNOWED UNDER The inflatable Teflon roof of Minnesota's Metrodome collapsed under more than 17" of snow, delaying and moving the Vikings vs. Giants game.

CHAMPIONS

U.S. OPEN CHAMP

For the first time in 40 years, a European brought home the cup when Northern Ireland's Graeme McDowell won at Pebble Beach in 2010.

VUVUZA WHAT?

The distinctive sound of vuvuzelas, plastic horns long associated with soccer in South Africa, gained international exposure during 2010 World Cup play.

RETURN POLICY

In September, New Orleans Saints running back Reggie Bush surrendered the 2005 Heisman Trophy after it became clear there'd been violations at USC.

RENEWED RIVALRY

LAKE SHOW vs THE CELTS

Bird and Magic, Kareem and Ainge, Kobe and Pierce, Garnett and Gasol. The rivalry between these two historic NBA teams was renewed in the late 2000s; after Boston capped off with the win in a six-game battle in 2008, L.A. won a thrilling seven-game series in 2010. Combined, these teams held 32 NBA titles. That's more than half of the NBA's total championships!

/SUPER COMPETITORS

USA'S GOT GAME

Landon Donavon's goal in extra time gave the U.S. team a World Cup victory over Algeria that advanced them to the Round of 16 where their tournament ended with a loss to Ghana.

A COACH'S SACRIFICE

Wake Forest University baseball coach Tom Walter donated one of his kidneys to freshman outfielder Kevin Jordan. Walter insisted he was not a hero, but many disagreed.

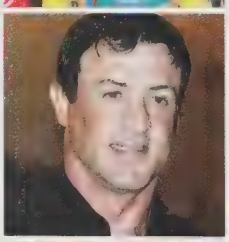

YELLOW JERSEY #3

Spaniard Alberto Contador finished 39 seconds ahead of Luxembourg's Andy Schleck to win his third Tour de France. This was Spain's fifth consecutive yellow jersey.

ROCKY STRIKES AGAIN

Actor Sylvester Stallone was inducted into the International Boxing Hall of Fame to recognize the impact his six "Rocky" movies, the first of which debuted in 1976, had on the sport.

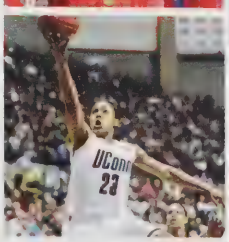

OVERTIME WIN

Spain defeated the Netherlands 1-0 in front of 84,490 fans in South Africa to win its first World Cup. Spain was the eighth nation to earn soccer's highest honor.

A NEW RECORD

The University of Connecticut women's basketball team set a new record with 90 consecutive wins. The previous record was set by the UCLA men's team in 1974. The Huskies' streak ended with a loss to Stanford.

THE NEW A-ROD

Aaron Rodgers was named Super Bowl MVP after throwing for 304 yards and tossing two touchdown throws to Greg Jennings and one to Jordy Nelson.

GOLD X 4

With a record-tying run, Kaya Wiese earned an unprecedented fourth gold medal in the halfpipe at the 2013 Winter X Games in Aspen.

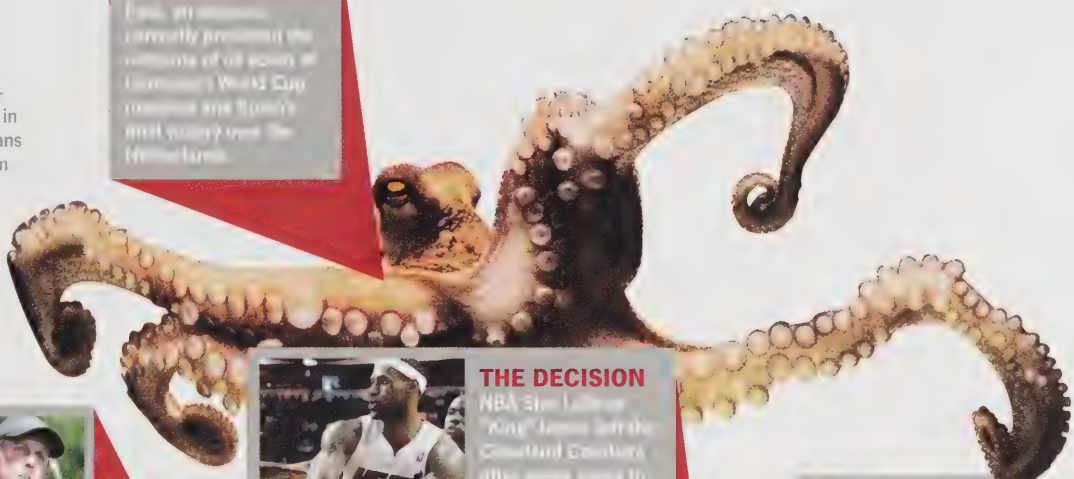

SUPER BOWL CHAMPS

The Packers took the Lombardi Trophy back to Green Bay with a 31-25 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XLV. Despite a fourth quater rally by the Steelers, the Packers won thier fourth Super Bowl and 13th NFL title. The two storied franchises went head-to-head at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, TX with 103,219 fans in attendance and 111 million watching on television. Due to safety concerns, 2000 ticket holders were forced to sit in temporary seating with 400 of the displaced fans left with no seats at all.

PSYCHIC OCTOPUS

Paul, an octopus, correctly predicted the outcome of all seven of Germany's World Cup matches and Spain's semi victory over the Netherlands.

THE DECISION

NBA Star LeBron "King" James left the Cleveland Cavaliers after seven years to play for the Miami Heat alongside Dwyane Wade and Chris Bosh.

GREEN JACKET #3

Phil Mickelson claimed an third Masters title, sealing third round leader Lee Westwood by four strokes. His win, along Kaitlyn Bristol Mickey, also on hand for the victory.

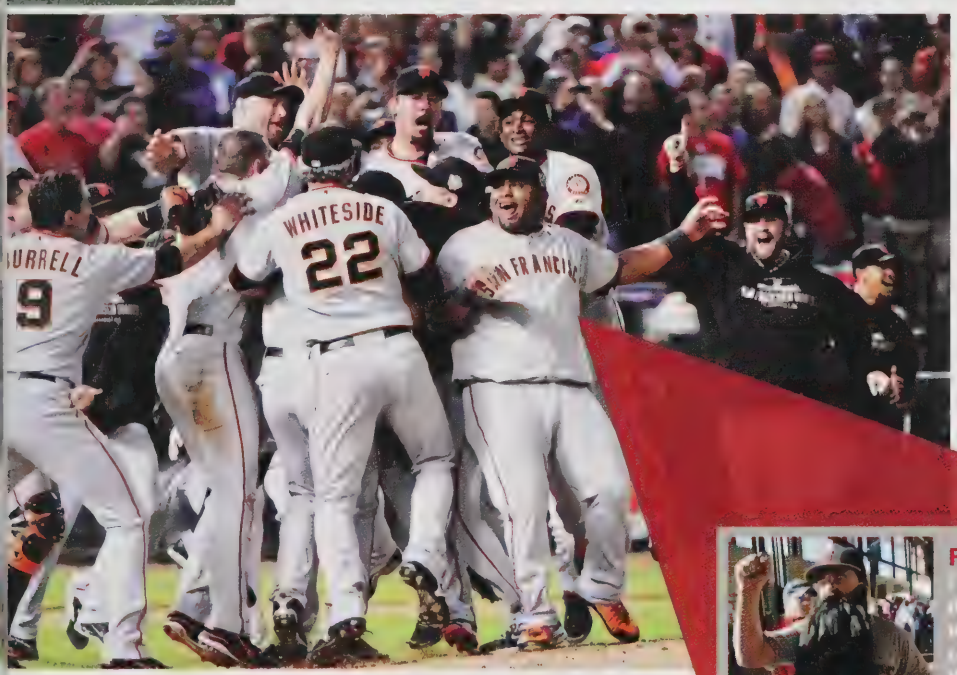

HOCKEY CHAMPS

The 2010 Stanley Cup went to the Chicago Blackhawks after Patrick Kane's overtime goal ended the Philadelphia Flyers 4-3.

13 AND COUNTING

Serena Williams battled Kim Clijsters to win the Women's Singles title and her 13th Grand Slam trophy. She has since had more and taken a break.

A GIANT WIN

The San Fransico Giants won the World Series in game five by defeating the Texas Rangers 3-1. The Giants previous World Series win was in 1954 when the team was still in New York. Series MVP Edgar Renteria hit the home run that won the game and the series. In 1997, his single in the seventh game won the World Series for the Florida Marlins.

FEAR THE BEARD

Fans were take turns during the postseason to support Giant's closing pitcher Brian Wilson who had opened a club known as the Beard Nation.

/THE WORLD IS A STAGE

BIEBER FEVER

Justin Bieber, the 17-year-old Canadian pop star who began his career on YouTube, released his 3-D biopic and his second remix album the same weekend in February, 2011 to significant commercial success. The releases followed unrewarded Grammy nominations for Best New Artist and Best Pop Album and 2011 People's Choice nominations for Best Video and Breakout Artist.

GET THE LOOK

Not everyone was blessed with super smooth and naturally windblown hair like Justin had, but with these simple steps you too could sport the Bieber 'Do.'

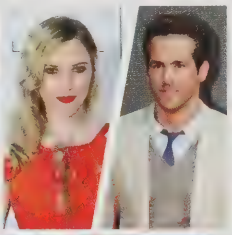

HOW TO After washing, simply apply some smoothing product into your hair and then blow sideways in a wind tunnel until dry. Keep still, or you could come out looking like a bad 80's music video!

BABY BABY BABY!

Voila! You're the spitting image of Justin Bieber himself. Hmmm, proceed with caution as you could very well start a riot of mistaken Bieber fangirls!

BEATLES ON iTUNES

Apple CEO Steve Jobs finally got his way when the Beatles collection was added to iTunes in November 2010.

DIVORCE COURT

After two years, citing the strain of managing two successful careers, Scarlett Johansson and Ryan Reynolds filed for divorce.

LOST FINALE

In its sixth and final season ABC's Lost was nominated for 12 Emmys and left fans wanting more.

HE'S BACK!!

Conan O'Brien had amazing numbers when he debuted his late night show, Conan, on TBS.

OPRAH'S LAST HURRAH

After 25 years hosting her afternoon talk show, Oprah Winfrey had other plans, including her own network.

ANIMAL DEBUT

Ke$ha was certified five times platinum for downloads of her hit single "Tik Tok."

NO MORE MUSIC

Singer/actress Ashlee Simpson reverted to her maiden name when divorced from Pete Wentz.

AMERICAN IDIOT

After a year on Broadway, the one-act musical based on Green Day's album by the same name won a Grammy.

GLEE TOPS ALL

First, the TV show choir ensemble passed the Beatles for the most appearances on Billboard's Top 100. Then, in February 2011, they passed Elvis too!

X-FACTOR

After nine seasons, Simon Cowell left American Idol to bring his British hit show X-Factor, which featured solo performers and groups, to American TV.

AMERICAN IDOL

Only Randy Jackson remained as a judge for season 10; he was joined by Steven Tyler and Jennifer Lopez when auditions commenced in 2011.

TOP HONORS

Based on true events, The King's Speech was nominated for 12 Academy Awards and won Best Actor, Best Film, Best Director and Best Original Screenplay.

10 BILLION APPS
Apple reached its milestone download of apps for mobile devices on January 22, 2011 after weeks of promotion; the lucky customer earned a $10,000 iTunes giftcard.

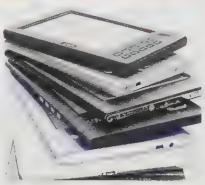

TOP OF THE CHARTS
Super Mario Galaxy 2 was introduced with a rolling release for the Nintendo Wii in the spring of 2010 and was considered one of the best video games of all time with a 97/100 rating on Metacritic.

USING STREET VIEW
At the Feb. 11, 2011 launch of the Google Art Project website, it was revealed that art lovers could "visit" acclaimed galleries worldwide, browsing famous artwork with just a click of their mouse.

eREADERS
Amazon's Kindle, Barnes & Noble's Nook, Apple's iPad and the newcomer Samsung Galaxy were among the eReaders/tablet devices sold in 2010, making personal libraries mobile.

MUSIC EVERYWHERE
Sonos Home Music System allowed listeners to hear their favorite music in multiple rooms with a remote and any computer. Similar systems were also created for iPads and other devices.

BIG BAGS
From the runways at Fashion Week to malls and campus hallways and classrooms, the popularity of the hobo bag and other supersized purses was apparent.

RAY-BAN REVIVAL
When these '80s mainstays first made their comeback, vintage stores and eBay were practical sources, but demand encouraged renewed production.

SMARTPHONES
It seemed that nearly everyone had become increasingly dependent on their smartphones, toting an iPhone, Droid or Blackberry wherever they went.

JEGGINGS
When designers crossed leggings with jeans, they got comfy jeggings. Even Conan O'Brien donned a pair on screen in support of this trendy style.

BOOTS GALORE
From flats to spiky heels and everywhere in between, boots seemed to command fashion attention as they completed outfits of many styles.

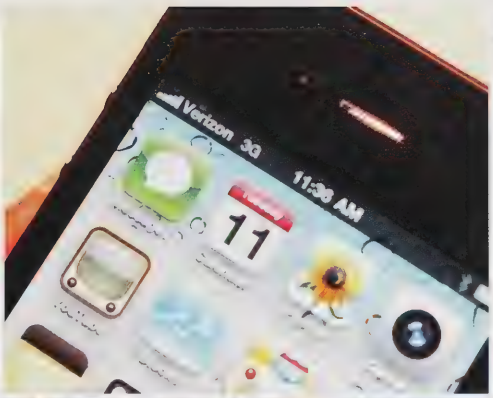

SKINNY JEANS
Hipsters all over the U.S. and Europe started the revival of popularity to these taut denim pants, but the style had become mainstream in recent years.

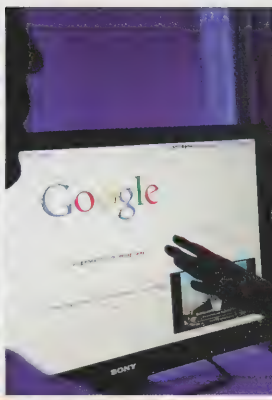

ANOTHER DIMENSION Sales of another new tech fad, 3-D television, nearly doubled in 2011 from when the technology was first introduced just a year earlier. With an estimated four million 3-D sets sold in 2011, industry consultants suggested that figure could double again by 2012 as manufacturers hope to tap into the 3-D gaming market. INVISIBLE CURRENTS The technology of inductive charging or wireless charging of any device with a lithium battery made its way into homes and offices when users became able to lay their mobile devices on a "power mat" and charge them without any wires or adaptors.

iPHONE ENVY
After five years of the iPhone only being available on AT&T's network, Verizon revealed that they'd become a carrier for the most popular smartphone on the market in February 2011. Verizon announced its most successful first-day sales in company history selling 2.9 million phones in a two-hour span to existing customers. While new customers were required to wait a week to purchase Verizon's iPhone, sales data was not immediately available, partially because of high online sales.

TV/BROWSER OR BOTH?
A relatively new technology, Google TV was an internet-connected TV platform that allowed users to stream videos, movies and music and access other information downloadable from the internet on larger screens. Introduced at a May 2010 web developers' conference, Google TV was directly incorporated into some newer high-definition televisions and Blu-ray players. In addition, some users acquired a set-top box containing the Android-based system and necessary accessories in order to have split-screen access to surf the web on the TV while still watching other programming.

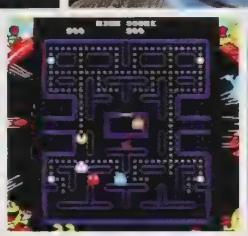

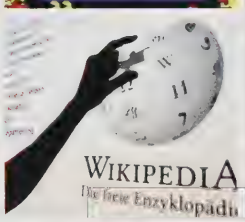

IT'S ELECTRIC
In December 2010, Nissan began selling its version of the electric car, the Leaf, in five states. In addition 20,000 cars had been "reserved." The battery-powered car used a 120v plug to recharge and Nissan claimed it could go 100 miles between charges. The Nissan Leaf won the 2010 Green Car Vision Award and the 2011 European Car of the Year award for its "no tailpipe pollution or greenhouse gas emissions" operation.

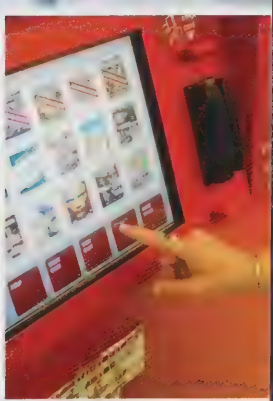

SHOE GLOVES Made to feel like you're running barefoot, the Five Fingers running shoes from Vibram found their way onto runners' feet everywhere. PACMAN RETURNS Google celebrated the 30th anniversary of Pacman in May 2010 with the first-ever interactive Google logo illustration. The game, which resembled the arcade original, was live for just 48 hours on the Google search screen. WIKIPEDIA The San Francisco-based online encyclopedia which pioneered shared knowledge resources celebrated its 10th birthday. The reference was available in many languages; the ten most popular all included more than 500,000 articles. iCHILDREN A study conducted by AVG found that 90% of 2-5 year olds could work a smartphone app but only 9% of the same group could tie their shoes.

AN APPLE A DAY The first-of-its-kind iPad tablet was a huge hit, selling 300,000 the first day, three million devices in 80 days, and nearly 15 million units in calendar 2010. HOLOGRAPHIC TSAs Hoping to eliminate human inconsistency, several airports in the UK began beaming holographic images of agents to prep travelers for the security line. RED BOX IS EVERYWHERE After studying customer habits, video rental business models changed. Red Box offered $1 movies at more than 25,000 locations and Netflix downloads became instantly available on almost any computer or mobile device.
